EVEN THE PRISONERS

Appreciate the Fact That Christmas

Christmas was observed at the District fail and the work house by making it what is known to the inmates as "Visitors' day." At both prisons the relatives and friends of the unfortunate incarcerated ones were permitted to visit them and also hand in to them all the good things brought by them. The privilege was the means of bringing to each prison a very large number of such visitors, very few prisoners Concentrated Bottled being forgotten. Those who were so unfortunate as to have no visitor call upon them were not entirely neglected, how-ever, for out of the abundance brought to their more fortunate fellows the unvisited ones received not a little. No services were held at either institution, and at the jail nothing beyond the ordinary bill of fare was served. At the work house and poor house, however, Intendant Stoutenburgh served turkey and cake to every inmate, and no labor was required of the prisoners in the work house.

The tunnel that the United States is building under the Conduit road, about one mile west of the Chain bridge, for the purpose of carrying into the Potomac the water that is brought to the receiving reservoir by the several small streams that drain the country about Tenleytown and Chevy Chase, has just called for the glying of an order to the Frederick City Company for 330,000 additional brick. It will be remembered that Col. Pope Again Arrested.

Mrs. Horace Helyer, whose husband, formerly secretary of the British legation at Washington, died some time since, to the Hon. Mr. Lumley, rephew and heir of Lord Sayville, but no official announcement eral year Wm. Pope, the colored desperado who several years ago shot Gen. Auger, on being requested to cease his loud talking at midnight beneath the windows of the Auger home, 28th and Dumbarton avenue, and who shot Tom Belt and was heavily punished, and who on countless occasions has been in the station, was on Saturday again been in the station, was on Saturday again arrested. He had been in town but a few days, having lived in Philadelphia since his last assault case. He was arrested on Saturday for being drunk and disorderly. At the station he caused so much trouble that the keeper put an additional charge against him. Pope is one of the hardest characters the town has ever had. His family is well known and respected in the West End. Officers Grant and Upperman arrested Pope.

Christmas Trade Good.

A progressive euchre party, the last of the season, was held on Saturday evening at the Eckington Hotel, the home of Mr. and Mrs. McKellip. The Neighbors' Club was well represented. The prizes were won by Mr. Clarke, Representative Dunn of New Jersey, Miss Maggie McKellip, Miss Bessie Daniels and Miss May English. The booby prize was awarded to Mr. Ernest. After enjoying a sumptuous collation, the party dispersed. A majority of the merchants here say that while they have not disposed of as many high-priced and fancy articles as last year, the sum total of the sales has Canada, but for the past two years a well-known society belle of Eckington, has left for the Pacific coast, on an extended tour. She will return to Washington early in the spring and reside with her aunt, Mrs. Mc-Kellip of Eckington. been equally as large. This is in spite of the cry that hard times have visited the District. Cash sales have been predominant, too. Real estate men say that they have made as many sales as they ever have during the winter months. They refuse absolutely to acknowledge that Georgetown has been affected in the least by the slump in business.

Virginians and the Bridge.

The marriage of Mr. Thomas W. Mac-Gregor and Miss Lizzie A. Morse took place at the home of the bride's father, 60 I street northwest, this morning—Christmas being the anniversary of her parents' marriage—Rev. Mr. Muir officiating. Only a few intimate friends, besides the relatives, were present. The bride wore a traveling dress of green and brown hop sacking, trimmed with velvet and marten fur, with hat and gloves to match. Cream roses were carried. Immediately after the ceremony the young couple left for a trip to New York and vicinity. Upon their return they will reside at No. 28 I street northeast, where, after January 15, they will be pleased to see their friends. The Aqueduct bridge has been provided with an entirely new roadway, and men are now at work upon the sidewalks. There are some wideawake taxpayers here who say that although Virginia is more benefited by this bridge than the District is, she does not contribute $1 toward its maintenance. They intend to bring this matter before the Citizens' Association as an im-position and request that it be looked into by those in authority.

HIGHWAY ROBBERT.

Some highwaymen steal your money, others try to steal the results of your brain and the fruits of your labor; the latter is the worst form of highway robbery. Merit has made a success of CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS. They have become a household word and the people will have them; they know their value. Then comes the highwayman with his IMITATIONS AND WORTHLESS FRAUDS, and with these has
